

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has distinguished himself through many years of excellence in the workplace; and

Whereas, Tom Engelhard, an esteemed resident of St. Charles, Missouri, will officially retire from PayneCrest Electric on December 31, 2003, after more than three decades of exceptional service and dedication to the electric industry; and

Whereas, a graduate of Washington University, Tom Engelhard began his career in the electrical construction business at Crest Electrical in 1969, where he progressed from an estimator and project manager to the position of vice president, heading up the commercial plan and spec department; and

Whereas, Tom Engelhard has been instrumental in the success of several projects around the St. Louis area, some of which include the renovation of Renard Hospital at the BJC complex, The Hallmark of Creve Coeur, and the St. Louis Missouri Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints; and

Whereas, in 2000 Crest Electrical became PayneCrest Electric, where Tom Engelhard has successfully completed the many duties and tasks placed before him as Vice President and Senior Project Manager for the past three years; and

Whereas, a member of NECA (National Electrical Contractors Association), ASA (American Subcontractors Association), AGC (Associated General Contractors of America), and the Whitmore Country Club, Tom Engelhard looks forward to his much-deserved retirement so that he can spend more time lowering his golf handicap and “repairing” his boat; and

Whereas, Tom Engelhard has been abundantly blessed with the love and admiration of a wonderful family whose members include his devoted wife, Jean, and his four children, Cathy, Don, Jim, and John:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in expressing our utmost appreciation to Tom Engelhard for his thirty-four years of unparalleled service to Crest Electric and PayneCrest Electric, and in wishing him the long, enjoyable, and rewarding retirement he so richly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Tom Engelhard.
